Sometimes I don't even know how to approach the topic of Steven Seagal anymore. We all know that Seagal is a really strange myth of a fraud of a man, but that is really what Hollywood is about, isn't it? Our favorite color commentator and host Michael Schiavello will be interviewing Seagal for his next installment of "The Voice Versus" on AXS TV. Just watch this trailer and stare in awe of how ridiculous Seagal is and how great Schiavello is at doing what he does.
