

Saenchai Sinbimuaythai Out of League Portion of MPL, Saiyok Pumpanmuang In

Written by Rian Scalia

Wednesday, 03 August 2011 22:13 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 August 2011 22:33

---

The MuayThai Premier League announced today that due to scheduling conflicts, Saenchai Sinbimuaythai would be out of the league format. His replacement will be none other than Saiyok Pumpanmuang. The MPL did mention though that Saenchai will still fight in Super Fights, just he's out of the league format.

Here's the official news release, from MPL's Facebook :

Changes to the MPL Roster...

Due to scheduling conflicts with his many upcoming fights, Saenchai SinbiMuayThai of Thailand has been withdrawn from the League portion of

Thank you,

The addition of Saiyok Pumpanmuang now brings the MPL's roster at Welterweight (147lbs/66.67kg) to:

Andrei Kulebin

Denis Schneidmiller

Saenchai Sinbimuaythai Out of League Portion of MPL, Saiyok Pumpanmuang In

Written by Rian Scalia

Wednesday, 03 August 2011 22:13 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 August 2011 22:33

---

Kevin Ross

Liam Harrison

Mehdi Zatout

Mohammed Khamal

Saiyok Pumpanmuang

There will be one more fighter added to the division, as Australia's Kurt Finlayson has had to withdraw because of an injury. The MPL is currently working on a replacement.