
Lion Fight Promotions in Las Vegas has been going strong with their Las Vegas-based fight cards over the past two years. They've done a good job bringing positive attention to Muay Thai in America and helped build up some stars in the process. The October 13th event will be headlined by a pretty big fight between Joe Schilling and Eddie Walker, a fight that many believed to have been in the works for K-1's LA event, but never happened.

The rest of the card brings a good mix of local talent against other West Coast Muay Thai luminaries.
