

The SuperKombat WGP Final on December 22 takes place in Bucharest, Romania. The event will feature a one night, four man tournament, consisting of fighters who qualified to the tournament from the Final Elimination on November 10.

These four fighters are Benjamin Adegbuyi, Sebastian Ciobanu, Ismael Londt and Pavel Zhuravlev. Ciobanu will face Londt on one side of the tournament, and on the other side, Adegbuyi will face Zhuravlev. The winner of the tournament will be crowned the SuperKombat World Grand Prix 2012 champion. Sergei Lascenko was last year's winner.

No other announcements have been made for the fight card, but expect them to come soon and feature some big names, as it's SuperKombat's final and probably their biggest event of the year also.

As usual, the event will air live on Eurosport.