SUPERKOMBAT's WGP series continues this weekend with a big WGP event in Romania and for fans across the globe looking to watch it, there is some hope for you outside of Eurosport! If you live in the greater New York area you'll have access to the SUPERKOMBAT WGP event via Fight NOW TV. Fight NOW TV is a cable network that is available in the New York area and will be carrying SUPERKOMBAT live.

If you are not in the New York area and wish to watch the SUPERKOMBAT WGP event live, it will be available via Epicentre.tv for $9.99. You'll probably remember Epicentre from the K-1 World MAX Final 16 event a few weeks ago and I think that those who saw it know that it was a quality stream without any problems, which is a good thing. So for kickboxing fans this weekend there are going to be a lot of events to watch, which is a great thing!
